

Could a Climber Scale a Mountain?

Words & music: © A. Baer, 2011;
arr: S. Porter

meter: 8797D

C G C C F

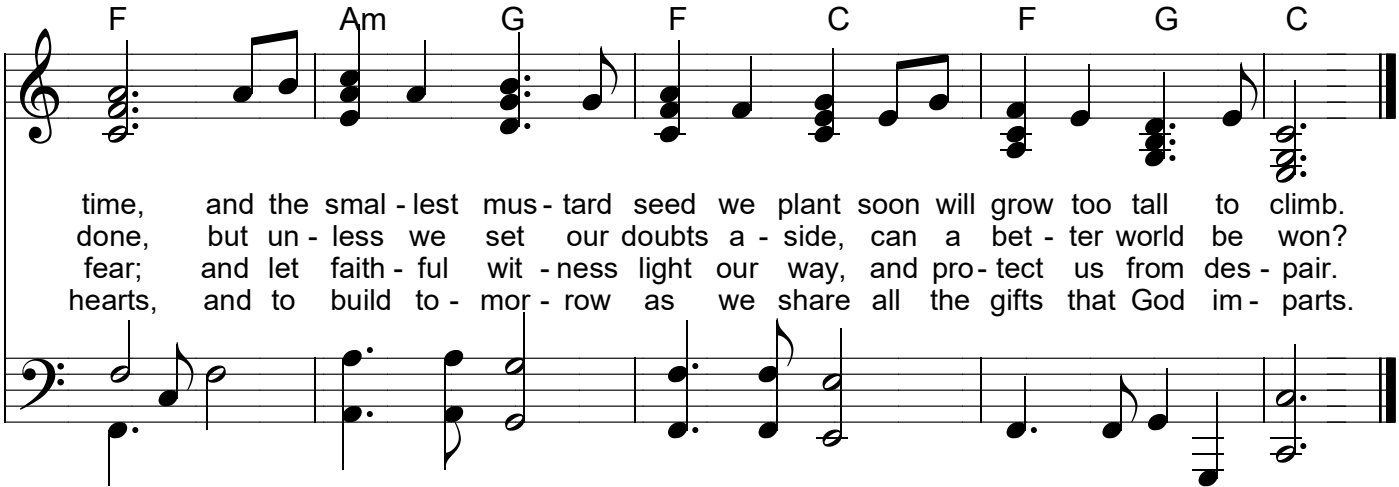

Could a climb - er scale a moun - tain, or a run - ner start a Mos - es led a fick - le peo - ple, No - ah built a ship, in -
 Are we fools to walk this jour - ney, or un - wise to back a
 When our strength or know - ledge fails us, then our faith will see us

G F G C Am Dm<sup>7</sup> Dm<sup>7</sup> race, with - out faith that they could seize the day and then see their goal em - land! and they had no more to lead them on than a word of God's com - cause? If we fail, then let us start a - gain and we'll rect - i - fy our through, for our trust rests in a lov - ing God, who is gen - er - ous and

G C G C C Dm<sup>7</sup> C braced? That's how dreams can move a boul - der by one peb - ble at a mand. There will al - ways be the skep - tics who will say it can't be flaws. Let our love out - weigh our an - ger; let our hope out - last our true. Let the grace God of - fers move us to bring peace to troub - led

F Am G F C F G C

time, and the smal - lest mus - tard seed we plant soon will grow too tall to climb.
 done, but un - less we set our doubts a - side, can a bet - ter world be won?
 fear; and let faith - ful wit - ness light our way, and pro - tect us from des - pair.
 hearts, and to build to - mor - row as we share all the gifts that God im - parts.