Morning Has Broken

C instrument

obbligato by Allan Baer © 2021

The image shows four staves of musical notation for a C instrument in 3/4 time. Each staff begins with a treble clef and consists of five horizontal lines. The first staff contains eight notes: a long note followed by a short note, then pairs of short and long notes. The second staff contains ten notes: a short note, a long note, pairs of short and long notes, and a short note. The third staff contains nine notes: a short note, a long note, pairs of short and long notes, and a short note. The fourth staff contains ten notes: a short note, a long note, pairs of short and long notes, and a short note.
